STUDENTS/PARENTS ALERT

The Pharmacy Council of Pakistan (PCP) has observed that certain institutions are advertising or offering the Doctor of Pharmacy (Pharm.D) degree program without obtaining the requisite No Objection Certificate (NOC) from PCP for the commencement and conduct of the program.

Although the Pharmacy Council of Pakistan is taking the necessary legal action against such institutions in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations. However, students and parents are strongly advised to independently verify the approval and regulatory status of the institution and its Pharm.D degree program through the official PCP website before seeking admission.

The Pharmacy Council of Pakistan shall not be responsible for any consequences arising from admission to institutions or programs without prior verification of their approval and regulatory status.
